News

Nov. 2016 Edition

Dear Wisconsin Children's Safety Advocates:

In October 2016, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission issued a total of 8 recalls relating to products affecting children. Attached is a summary of the releases identifying the product, the problem, and what should be done with the recalled product.

We have found that not all of the recalls are picked up by the news media as they occur. This monthly summary will give you the opportunity to review all of the children's product safety recalls for the past month. If you are interested in a complete text of the recall, double click on the hyperlink at the end of the recall description. This will direct you to the recall notice located on the CPSC website.

Release Number: (#17-702) FULLBEAUTY Brands L.P., of N.Y., announces the recall of about 31,500 girl's Dreams & Co.® by FULLBEAUTY Brands knit cotton jersey "daughter Henley" styled nightgown. The nightgowns have picot edge trim and a button placket on the center front of the chest. The nightgowns were sold in children's sizes: 6/6X, 7/8 and 10/12 in the following five different prints. The style number is printed on the side seam label of the nightgown.

Problem: The nightgowns fail to meet federal flammability standards for children's sleepwear, posing a risk of burn injuries to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately take the recalled nightgowns away from children and contact the firm for instructions on receiving a full refund or a company gift card for 125% of the purchase price. The firm is contacting consumers that purchased the recalled nightgowns. You can contact FULLBEAUTY Brands at 800-313-8803 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, email fbbreCALL@fbbrands.com or online at www.fbbrands.com and click on Recall Information for more information.

Release Number: (#17-707) Summer Infant, Inc., of Woonsocket, R.I., announces the voluntary recall of about 86,000 Lil' Luxuries Whirlpool, Bubbling Spa & Shower with fabric slings. The infant bath tub is a battery-operated whirlpool bath with motorized jets intended for use with children from birth to 2 years. The product contains a fabric sling on a plastic frame onto which the infant is placed for bathing. The fabric sling on the recalled bath tubs does not have a white plastic attachment clip to hold the headrest area of the fabric sling to the plastic frame.

Problem: Fabric slings on the recalled infant bath tubs can detach from the tub, posing a risk of impact injury and drowning.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the fabric sling in the recalled product and contact Summer Infant for a replacement fabric sling with a white plastic attachment clip. You can contact Summer Infant toll free at 844-612-4254 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. ET on Friday, or online at www.summerinfant.com and click on “Safety Alerts & Recalls” at the bottom of the page for more information.

Release Number: (#17-010) Mamas & Papas Ltd, of UK, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 3,000 Armadillo Flip and Armadillo Flip XT strollers. All models are folding, single-occupant infant strollers. The strollers come in various colors including black, teal and navy and weigh about 22 pounds. Recalled items can be identified by their lot number, which is the month and year of manufacture. Lot numbers ranges for recalled Armadillo Flip strollers are 00814 through 00416 (August 2014 through April 2016).

Problem: A loose latch on the stroller can cause the seat to tip back unexpectedly when infant is in the parent-facing position, posing a fall hazard to infants.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the strollers and contact Mamas & Papas for a free repair. You can contact Mamas & Papas at 800-309-6312 anytime or online at www.mamasandpapas.com/us and click on Recall Notice for more information.

Release Number: (#17-014) L’echarpe Portebonheur Inc., of Canada, is announcing the voluntary recall of about 130 Chimparoo brand Trek baby carriers that allow the user to carry a baby tummy to tummy, on the hip or on the back. The 100% twill fabric carriers were sold in 18 solid, striped and pattern color combinations. The carriers attach to the wearer’s body with adjustable straps made of polypropylene webbing and plastic buckles. “Chimparoo” is printed on the upper right hand corner of the carrier. “Trek” is embroidered on the belt.

Problem: The carriers’ side strap can loosen unexpectedly from the buckle, posing a fall hazard to the child in the carrier.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled baby carriers and contact Chimparoo for a free replacement buckle for the baby carrier’s side buckle. You can contact Chimparoo toll-free at 855-289-5343 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, email at safety@Chimparoo.com or online at www.Chimparoo.ca/en/recall and click on “Product Recall” at the bottom of the page.

Release Number: (#17-020) Target Corp., of Minneapolis, M.N., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 127,000 Halloween-themed LED gel clings that come with two non-replaceable button cell batteries. The gel clings are for window use only and light up with a blinking light when you push on them. The six different gel cling designs are a green skeleton, pink skeleton, purple spider, black cat, orange pumpkin, and black bat. Model number 234-25-0904 is printed on the gel cling's packaging.

Problem: The gel clings can separate and expose the inner decal and LED/button battery compartment, posing choking and button battery ingestion hazards to children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately remove the recalled gel clings from areas with children and return them to any Target store for a full refund. You can contact Target at 800-440-0680 from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. CT Monday through Sunday, online at www.Target.com and click on "School/Stationery/Seasonal" on the product recalls page for more information, or the "Product Recalls" tab on Target's Facebook page.

Release Number: (#17-705) Fiddle Diddles Inc., of Maple Grove, M.N., is announcing the voluntary recall of about 250 LullaBelay adjustable car seat strap system with model number LB1001. The strap system includes two fabric straps, carabiner hardware, a mesh car seat cover and a tote bag. The carabiners are used to hang a car seat from a shopping cart. The model number is printed on the gray straps. "Fiddle Diddles" is printed on a fabric label attached to the mesh car seat cover, tote bag and fabric straps.

Problem: The carabiners attached to the strap system contain small internal parts that can become dislodged, posing a choking hazard to young children.

What to do: Consumers should immediately stop using the LullaBelay strap system and contact Fiddle Diddles for a free repair kit with three new carabiners. The firm is contacting all known purchasers directly. You can contact Fiddle Diddles toll-free at 888-741-2957 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. CT Monday through Friday, email at info@fiddlediddles.com or online at www.fiddlediddles.com and click on "Product Recall" at the bottom of the page for more information.
